“ My brother, friend, homie, and my road dawg is what you were to me for over 30 years. I shall forever cherish the times we spent together, our 4+ hour phone calls and just riding around town. We had a bond and a special relationship I will forver cherish. I remember I took this picture on my porch when you came over after church. We ate and then went riding. It was a beautiful day. Take your rest. You will be missed. I will always love you. So long my dear friend until we meet again. 💔
