

Ms. Annette Mitchell Ada

June 4, 1957 - March 29, 2024

Annette “Anna” Mitchell – Ada, 66, departed this life on March 29, 2024, at Aperia Nursing Home. She was born June 4, 1957, in Camden, Arkansas, to Ada (Ola) Mae Burch and Jimmie Mitchell. Her upbringing was filled with Love and Care, provided by her Maternal Aunt Erma Bailey and her husband David Bailey. Despite being a sickly child who faced many challenges, Anna found comfort and support in her Maternal Aunt Marie Wheeler.

Anna dedicated her life to Spiritual Service, engaging in Street Ministry and sharing the Teachings of Jesus Christ in Jewish Temples and Muslim Mosques. Her Devotion was driven by a deep Love for the Lord and a desire to share God’s Love with everyone.

Anna’s life was marked by the loss of her beloved Son Phillip Brown, her Mother Ola Fort, her Father Jimmie Mitchell, and her Adoptive Parents Erma and David Bailey.

Anna’s legacy is carried on by her Son Calvin Brown, Grandson Brandon Brown, Granddaughter, Stepfather William Fort Sr.; Sisters: Vivian (Bruce) Henderson, Sherry (Barry) Kopke, Melvette Sockwell, Pamela (Brent) Curry, Regina (William) McClain; Brothers: William Fort Jr., Maggness (Joli) Fort, Steven Fort, and a Cherished circle of Aunts, Uncles, Nieces, Nephews and Cousins.
