“ Anthony was the best co-worker I ever worked with in my 24 years at Cat, hands down. Him and I were like a tag team in getting the job done, or on the flip side, slacking and having fun together. He was so enjoyable to be around, I sometimes even looked forward to going to work the next day. During the 7 years we were in the same area he became a true confidant. He covered my butt, and he had my back. I'm retired now, but was still working when suddenly he became ill and never came back. I worked another 18 months before leaving and it was just not the same without Anthony. His absence played a role in my decision to get out of that place. For us to work hand in hand for so many years and never have a squabble, that was a pleasure. Good natured, easy going, empathetic, all qualities that come from the heart.

Bruce, I whole heartedly agree with your sentiments. One of the finest people I ever had the pleasure of working with, you, you weren't too bad. With all seriousness I will always remember you guys as they dynamic duo that held it down, despite those pesky IPads. I miss those days. Hope he's riding a three wheel bike with a smile on his face up there.
