“ I was so saddened to see my dear high school friend has passed away. Today when I talked to my daughter she asked me to share my testimony. Barb & I were on a bus trip with teens from First Baptist church in Sparland. We'd visited Judson college for an overnight taste of college life with our pastor Charles Shipman as our driver/chaperone. There were about 25 of us I think. We went to a Billy Graham revival held at McCormack Place in Chicago. When Just As I Am was played there was no way that I could stay where I was in my seat. I went forward with 100's of others. When I went back to where I thought our group was sitting I couldn't find them, so I found my way to the bus. A 15 year old girl from a small town of less than 2000 people (who is an awful navigator). A few weeks after that trip we both were baptized together. I'll always cherish that memory with Barb. We had some great times together. I'm so sorry that I can't be there for the family & her service. I am out of state & to have back surgery on Mon. Nov. 7 I last saw her when her dad passed away.

“ I will greatly miss my beautiful mother-in-law. Nine years has not been long enough. I will never forget the sound of her laughter, the love she had for us all, and the dedication to her children, and grand-children. She has been a true blessing in my life and I'll never forget how much she loved me. Barb would always say "I never had any daughters so I got my daughters when my son's got married." I felt her love and I know she meant it whenever she'd say that she loved me and that she was proud of me. I will always appreciate her influence in my life. To my husband Jamie, and his brothers Nate, and Freddie just know you all were loved.

“ Barb was my mentor and great friend many years ago. Though I had not seen her in years, I will always remember that big smile and her warm kind heart. She would always worry about others and put herself last. Though we didn't know each other long, you left a big imprint on my heart. That's a testament to the kind of a person you were. Thank you for the talks, the rides, the good times, and the laughter. You were my big sister when I needed one most. I was privileged to have known you. Rest in peace, Barb, and continue your laughter.
