“ When I think of Brian. I think of Fernwood. Spirit of America. One of the best skaters in the P. Well the entire Irby family was nice. lol Brian is a part of a Testimony of my life. He witnessed my abuse as my Neighbor in the Taft. He told me. When I'm ready to leave he would help anyway he could. The Day I got the courage I told him I was done. I had found me a place. And wanted to leave before day in the morning I rented a U Haul and we packed it down before sunrise when my abuser came home I was long gone. Everytime we seen each other he would say. If you could've seen his face to go inside an apartment and everything gone. I hugged and thanked him everytime. It had been years since I seen him. But he will always hold a special place in my heart. Rest easy my friend. I'll never forget what you did for me

“ I was devastated to hear about your passing away Brian. But you are truly going to be missed and I remember you telling me that you were diagnosed with cancer but I didn't know that you were that sick. But I will always remember you wherever I look at your watch you gave me. I will miss your phone call every now and then you would call and say hello. So to your children and grandchildren and your sisters and brothers, nieces and nephews and cousins you are all in my prayers and thoughts. Over twenty years of friendship cause I had just lost my dad around Thanksgiving of 2000 and then I met you and you lost your mom but now you are back in heaven with your family. Weeping may endure for a night but joy is coming in the morning. RIP Blove. PawPaw, Woodrow Irby
