“ I was able to work as Carl's Human Resources Manager at Mossville for several years and have appreciated Carl as one of the most respectful, kindest and helpful employees in our plant. He was a very good employee who took pride in his work - and worked hard - but he always took the time to share a pleasant greeting with everyone he met. On a personal level I always knew that if I needed a little positive "pick-me-up" at any time during the work day, I simply could go find Carl and he would make me smile.

My sincere condolences and prayers for comfort to his family.
