“ To the family of the late Mr. Courtland Tubbs, this is so hard I have known him since he was in grade school at Christ Lutheran, whenever the team traveled, I was mama Evelyn supporting all of the players, Courtland was the quiet one, he would sit back look, and had the most beautiful smile. I left Peoria, relocated to Indianapolis, one day I was downtown who did I see with a bright smile but Courtland, he told me he moved to Indianapolis. I always asked him how his mom and dad was doing. I was happy years later to find out he had gotten married to the most beautiful God-fearing woman in Peoria. I loved both of them and knew them when they were children. Courtland rest in peace, I am praying for your family that God bless them and give them strength to get through these difficult times.
