“ i can't believe Dee is gone. we grew up together in Clarksdale as kids and her family moved. later on my family moved to Peoria when we were a little older & we were reunited. we stayed best friends for a lot of years and then kinda of grew apart. But i always considered her one of my best friends for life. Emmitt was a good friend as well. i am so sorry i didnt get time to spend with her as i should. i will truly miss that smile of her's and her laughter.

To Emmitt i know what you are going thru, i went thru this last year with passing of my husband, i still cry some days. God will help you.

Love,

“ There are two constants that I remember about Aunt Dee and one is the grace that she exemplified and the second is her calm demeanor.

Someone once said that death is not an end if loved ones can continue to live on through our memories. The love Aunt Dee shared with us all will live in our hearts forever.
