“ Reta, Dorsey, family, relatives, and friends. I extend my heartfelt condolences to each of you. Not too long ago I walked in the same shoes as you walk today. It is never an easy walk, but with the covering and guidance of God on our side, he helps to ease and alleviate the depthness of that pain so that we can be comforted throughout. Everyday he will let you know that he's still a God of order and still in control of every situation that we endure. Hold on to your precious memories, which will never fade away but grow with each passing day. Praying for you all, and know that I love you.....Zelma Davis (Atlanta)

Sitting here thinking of our time we shared and I'm so happy for the wonderful things we shared in our 37 years together. The trips, the parties, and the wonderful friends you introduced me to. Our son, Little Dorsey, misses you a lot too. You were such a staple in our family dynamics. I have so much more that I could say but I don't want to start crying. Death, I still love you like when we first hooked up. Reta
