

Mr. Franklin D. Yarbrough

August 15, 1960 - September 8, 2024

Franklin D. Yarbrough Sr, 64, of Peoria, IL transitioned from his earthly home into his heavenly home on September 8, 2024, at 8:10 p.m. Franklin was born on August 15, 1960, in Chidester, Arkansas to Gladys Yarbrough and late Albert Hunter Jr.

Franklin attended Peoria Manual High School in Peoria, IL. Franklin loved to play football and basketball. His favorite teams were the Pittsburgh Steelers and the Los Angeles Lakers. Most men watched sports with their male friends, but not Franklin. He would share this time with his wife. He also enjoyed watching wrestling. He loved baking, especially donuts. He loved cooking and being on a grill. Franklin was known for his famous spaghetti. He loved to listen to old school jams and buy cars.

Franklin was employed for many years as a Baker at Kroger's on Lake and at Lester Donuts. When he was not working, he was known for being a homebody. He cherished having date nights with his wife and having conversations with his family on the phone. He would also spend time playing video games with his son who cared for him.

He is survived by his mom: Gladys Yarbrough; wife: Theda Yarbrough, his Soulmate, of 43 years of Peoria; one daughter: Wyneisha (baby girl) of Peoria; two sons: Timothy Petty and Franklin Yarbrough Jr. (Caregiver) both of Peoria; three sisters: Ferleace Yarbrough of Peoria, Teresa of Savannah Georgia, and Juanita of Atlanta Georgia; three brothers: Fredrick Yarbrough, Derrick Yarbrough, and Marcus Willis, all of Peoria; three grandchildren: Timothy Petty Jr, Trinity Petty, and Trinajah Petty, all of Peoria; best friend: Beaver Clark of Peoria; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends. who will truly miss him.

He was preceded in death by his father: Albert Hunter Jr; grandparents: Daisy and Lonnie Yarbrough; brother-n-law: Alfred Love; his mother-n-law: Cora Lee Love; father-n-law Ollie Love Sr.

“ I didn't get to know Mr Yarborough personally, but I know his wife. She is the substance of her husband. She always references him in her daily conversation. Smiled when times were tough. What a blessing it is to watch them live out the marriage vows. Our prayers are with you all!

“ I’ve know Dewayne since I was a very young girl ,My sister’s ran with his sisters. I remember when him and Theda first started dating and they remained soul mates until the end. That’s what you call 2lovers+2gether=4ever He loved his wife unconditionally Also kids and family. Also Ms Gladys sorry for the loss of your first born Think he was the only one that didn’t get in trouble,(lol) This one hits home Felicia Teresa Freddy Jerome and NeNe. Sending hugs to you because that was big bro. Theda I remember the way you two would dress and always be together and the smile that was ALWAYS on your face. You were proud to be MRS YARBROUGH.
□. Rest easy my friend
