“ To Miss Jane's Family, I send my sympathy to each of you amazing people. I had the good fortune of meeting a few of you at Cracker Barrel in Morton, after the services. I was more than impressed with your love for one another , your stylish clothes and your enthusiasm. Your mother, grandmother, great grandmother must have been a truly incredible individual to raise so many wonderful and caring children. I pray you will all be comforted by your sweet memories and your faith in Him - Our Savior and our Lord. May God continue abundantly blessing you all.

“ I found out late in life I was a distant cousin & also grew up a street away from her mother who lived on 5th. Also Harold was a next door neighbor on 6th. She was a lady that God granted many skills and I always enjoyed running into her.

My condolences Jojo to you and family. She is with her mother now whom I'm sure helped her learn all her talents and be such a nice lady.

God Bless

“ Sister Jane was married to my cousin for many years, Jack Fishback, so she's always been family. She was my Sunday school teacher and Vacation Bible School teacher for many years and we sang side by side in the choir for quite a long time together. She will be truly missed.
