“ It comes to mind that Jewell and I had many great outings together going to parties and dancing the night away. She was a great dancer, had a bubbly personality and always had a smile on her face. Jewell was always upbeat and had a kind word for everyone. I know I'll miss her lively yet down to earth persona. May God comfort her family during this time of sorrow. Leora Wilson-Berry

“ Jewell, there are no words that can convey how much you'll be missed, how much you're missed already, how much you were loved and appreciated in this life just for being who you were. Among so many other things, you were a world class friend with the best laugh EVER, and I'll cherish every memory you've left me of the times we had together. Peace and love be with you always, my friend, and with your entire family. I am praying for you all.
