“ To the Family of Josephine Hobbs:

*I know you will miss, I will miss her like you will, however, she is with our Saviour Jesus Christ. Brother Hobbs as we cry we cry tears of joy and happiness. One day we will all be together in heaven praising God the Father and thanking Jesus. God bless you.

“ My dear sister I miss you so much already, now I have to do all the cooking alone, thank you for all the fun times we had sharing recipes and cooking together over the phone. I miss talking to u on my way to church on Sunday morning, I just miss you so much because I love you so much! I'm so happy for the beautiful relationship we had you always knew how to encourage me, you were always there for me, you could make me laugh when I didn't feel like laughing. We always talked about the goodness of the Lord. I know you are at peace now and that's ok because this is the Will of the LORD! Take your rest my sister, you will always be in my heart. I love you sis, Joyce
