“ My uncle was a sweet loving caring person who didn't do anything to anyone. He always kept the peace and stayed to himself. He was a respectful caring man who always helped others especially his elders if he seen an older person taking groceries in the house he would stop by and help if he seen your garbage needed to be taking out he would do it. He has opened up his home to several ppl that were homeless he Evan took a dog that was homeless home and took good care of him no matter what you did to Keith he will always forgive and forget and keep the peace he was just a peaceful man who never cause any harm to anyone so whoever didn't pay the respect at his funeral, should be ashamed of their self cause he also helped those as well they know they are. But he wouldn't care anyway it was just the principal. But fly high unc always and forever you not a week go by that I never think about you love you ~Keith world🌍☐🕊️
