“ I was sincerely shocked to learn of Kinika's passing. She had such a beautiful spirit. We had many deep conversations while she was doing my hair. I pray for the well being of her children, whom she loved dearly. May God bless and keep them and the rest of her family as they contend with her loss. I will fondly remember her.

“ Kinika was such a sweet and kind soul. She was an integral part of my artwork. She inspired many of my works. She was my beautiful model. She was the hair stylist and makeup artist for my models and clients. And she'd dress up and go to silly 70's parties with me. She was a wonderful spirit and she was my friend. I will miss her.
