“ My condolences to the family. I was a little girl when I met Lindsey. I don't remember much, except his smile. We are the grand children of Joe Johnson.
Sincerely

“ I met Mr. Gaiter over 50 years ago, when I was teenager. He was a friend of my cousins, Sam and James Polk. He would tease me and call me Moon Ple, because I was from Memphis, and moon pies were a popular, southern junk food in the 60's. Although I have not seen him in a long time, I remember him as a kind gentlemen with a great sense of humor-- a fellow southerner from the Mid-South, my home and his!

May the family find peace and comfort in knowing that Mr. Gaiter now socializes with the angels, some of whom may also be familiar with this southern treat. May God bless you and keep you strong in the days ahead.

“ Gaiter would always come to the River City Cafe & Grill where I work and would be a ray of sunshine. He was a joy to be around as proof of the many friends who would meet him for lunch. My sincerest condolences to his family.

I don't know why but you came across my mind just a few days ago. It could have been at the same time of your transition. It was a pleasure knowing you...you were one of the nicer people I met during the time I worked at the Elks and it was always a pleasure to see you when I came to the courthouse to pay a ticket. Rest now. To Lynzi and the Gaiter family my condolences to you all.

“ I worked for many years with Lendsey at the Peoria County Courthouse. He and I went to many local Blues concerts together. Lendsey usually knew just about everyone at these places, and they all seemed happy to see him. He was a great guy, and I am proud to have called him my friend. I am truly saddened by his loss. Rest in peace, brother. Patrick Lang
