“ Although I wont go into details, but Leroy and I used to really get into some mischief when were young adults, it was a fun time &, no one got hurt, we just shared the fun and the laughs I last talked to him via FB (someone else's)on his birthday this year and he told me to be watching for his "friend request" , he was going to be getting a face book account, and we could catch up.. I never received the request, but he was always a good person and such fun to be around and a friend . I met him when I was in my late teens, and we had been friends since day one. I moved away and lost touch. My heart is heavy over the loss of this friend.. Rest on Leroy, I'll catch up with you on the other side.on day.. Love you dear friend. Gone but never forgotten. You are safe in the arms of God.
