“ I am so sorry to read in todays paper that Mr. Dixon has passed, before my retirement I worked in a downtown office building that he frequently went to. I came to know him and he was always so soft spoken and kind. We often talked about Jesus and I am sure you must find it comforting to know that he had a personal relationship with him. Not all of us have the assurance that our loved ones know Christ as their savior. You are fortunate to know that you can see him again.

Sincerely In Christ, Kathleen Dunbar
