“ My mother loved to play spades. Even when she was in the hospital on an IV. She asked to play a hand. She beat me and I didn't let her beat me. Her mind sharp till the end. I often wonder what I could've done differently to extend her life, but my Christian beliefs tell me that it was God's plan that she went at the time when she went and how she went. Mother I will always love you and I miss you so much kiss grandma and grandpa for me. Love you.

To know her was to love her. I never questioned her love for me because she had the same expectations of me that she had for my brother and sisters. She was beautiful inside and out. I looked forward to Friday because I would spend my weekend with Coon and my siblings. She taught me how to embrace and love a child that was not yours but the child of your spouse. I don't use step mother because, I was accepted and loved by her and family from the beginning. Rest on mom we will meet again Love always Kimberly Keys yourdaughter.
