“ I was sorry to read that Martin had passed away. I went to Spalding High school with Martin, and had seen him numerous times at Manor Care where I volunteer with St. Thomas Church. We have mass every Friday for the residents there, and after mass we always went to the Arcadia unit so those residents could have communion or a blessing, and Martin would receive a blessing every Friday. My sincere sympathy to all of Martin' family, I will keep Martin and all of his family in my thoughts and prayers. May he rest in peace.

“ I would like to start by introducing myself. I am Lewis Linwood married to Mr. Mitchell's daughter Tina. I have many memories of Mr. Martin, who I also had the pleasure of calling Dad. One in particular of us sitting at the dining table playing chess, although I was confident I was going to win things took a turn for the worse and I ended up having to fake a headache in order to escape defeat. I'm pretty sure he knew, but he let me off hook with a his smile and a chuckle. I'm deeply sadden by his passing, but rejoicing that he is not in pain anymore. I love you Dad.
