

Mrs. Ollie Mae Sturdivant

May 22, 1932 - December 19, 2024

Ollie Mae Sturdivant, 92, of Peoria departed this life into God's heavenly gates on December 19, 2024, at The Loft Rehabilitation Nursing Home at 8:46 a.m. Ollie was born on May 22, 1932, in York, AL to Bob "Buck" and Leona (Pack) Walker. Ollie leaves to cherish her precious memories: two sons: Nathan Sturdivant Jr. of Uganda, Africa and Timothy (Judith) Sturdivant of Chicago, IL; two daughters: Mary Sturdivant of Peoria and Deroita (Paul) Kaiser of Springfield, IL; one brother: Bobby "B.C." (Saundra) Walker; one sister: Virginia Pearl of Hannah City, IL; a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends who will miss her dearly.

Ollie was preceded in death by her loving husband Joe Nathan Sturdivant; one son: John (Woot) Sturdivant; three daughters: Joyce Stukes, Wanda (Wendy) Welch, and Dr. Armosha Harris; six brothers: Bob Walker Jr, Willie

Walker, Johnnie Walker, Frank Walker, Joseph Walker, and Robert Walker;

“ To the Family of Mrs. Sturdivant I send condolences & deepest sympathy .for the passing of Mrs. Ollie, yet I am happy at the same time, knowing that Mother Sturdivant is present with the LORD !!! As apart of The ST.PAUL Nursing Ministry we enjoyed some good times with her, she sang with us at the Loft nursing home as we ministered there, and knew every song ... She told me about her life story very interesting... And how she made it through ... Her Answer JESUS, JESUS, AND MORE JESUS... She lived and told her story, In my mind & heart even now I can hear her singing, with enthusiasm...HOW I MADE IT OVER .. SHE HAS... GOD BLESS...

Mrs. Ollie Mae Sturdivant to me seemed to be some kind of woman. She meant what she said and said what she meant. I went to school with her daughter Joyce and met her son Nathan. He was a real charmer. My Mother was real impressed with him. I only wish I had gotten a chance to meet Mrs. Ollie Mae Sturdivant. My condolences to the family. I look forward to meeting her in the new world where sickness will be a thing of the past. LottaLoveLanee
