“ Oscar's never one to be the center of attention. He was always quiet and laid back. But a great conversationalist, once you get him to speak. He loved life, family and his children. His smile could light up your darkest day. He'd always say hi or hello, and if you were sad he would offer words of comfort. "tomorrow will always be better" he would say. Sometimes the simplest of words can make a difference to someone. For the worries of this world is no more God has granted you peace. Sleep with the angels. You are missed.

“ Uncle Oscar was truly one of a kind. I can remember when I would visit him while he's was impatient. I played a gospel song by Debra Snipes on my phone call "So many times, the Lord's made a way for me"

He proceeded to say, the song goes perfect with his life and asked me to continue to play it.

I'm happy that I was able to pray with him and also provide guidance on him accepting Jesus as his personal Savior.

He told me he was at peace with whatever God decided.

I love you Uncle, no more pain, sorrow, or worry. Continue to rest in the arms of the Lord.
