“ We were so saddened to learn about our dear Ramon. He will be deeply missed by his whole church family at University United Methodist Church. He was a faithful member of the Praise Band and we will miss hearing him play the tambourine. We offer you, his family, our deepest sympathy in your loss. We pray that God will give you comfort in your grief.

*Ramon was such a nice guy. He always asked about my grandkids, how they are doing and so forth. Always have a big smile. Ramon you will be missed by our church, but everybody has to go home with our Father who gave us this borrowed life. May you continue to rest in peace with the Lord. Continue ringing those tambourine. We continue to pray your family especially this time of grief.
