“ Rickie I never told you I "Love" You cousin so long ago you gave me a candle made into the Word "LOVE" it was my favorite shade of "pinks" and very large it smelled good also. I had that candle for a long time I sat it on my dresser. It was the same dresser along with the entire bedroom set when you move into your own apartment. In spite of life's challenges we had a good childhood growing up from Smith Street, to Green Street, to First Street, to Seventh Street, and to Proctor. Now you have moved to "Heaven" thanks for all you did for me and my children "Marc", Zachary, and Lonnie.
