“ To the Scott Family

Loss is never easy and no words can express how you feel today and days to come, but look to the hills from whence come your help; it only comes from the Lord. My prayers are forever with you and soon sorrow will be joy!

Love your cousin,

“ Geri, you and your family have my sincere condolences. When I think of you and Robert, I remember the two of you always being together walking hand and hand... You all were the cutest couple...and also the fact we have remained friends since grade school. Robert was an awesome guy..If you ever need to talk, Tanya knows how to contact me...Love you and your family always..
