“ I'll miss everything about my good friend, even when he made fun of my singing. We worked together, did odd jobs around each others homes and had many a breakfast together. We would sit and tell each other stories for hours. I've lost a brother and my heart hurts.

“ I first met Ron and Karen at a party they were hosting at their home. I remember thinking how devoted they were to each other. Throughout the years, when I would have an encounter with Ronnie and Karen, I still had that sensation of total devotion between the two. I saw them a few weeks ago at a restaurant and that same feeling came over me. He was a good friend to everyone he met. Karen and family, you have my sincere and deepest sympathy. I am sure that he will be greatly missed. Blessing to you Karen and your family.
