“ This is the hardest time right now for me granny but I know you will want me to be strong. You are the best granny that anyone could possibly ever have. I am so grateful for all the life lessons that you have taught us and how to love, I truly am blessed to have you as a grandma but more as a mom. Thanking God for keeping you this long. I just want to thank you for always watching over me and most definitely the prayers! I hope and pray that I'll be as strong as you and the way that you took care of your family and others. I will always love you and never forget you and I'm just so grateful!!!

“ Thank you for instilling in me and my cousins that makeup is not needed because we are beautiful just the way God made us. Thank you for making sure that I always carried a pocket book :) as you called it because all women should carry a pocket book with our personal items in it. I am going to miss your beautiful smile and oh so beautiful hair. I believe I got my hat wearings from you as you always kept yourself up to par. I am going to miss you aunt Sadie, I love you and I will see you again.

“ To the Family of Mother Johnson aka Ms. Sadie B - God bless each of you who gave your loved one the best care. She is now in the hands of the Lord. There's no love like a Mother's love. To lose it is a great loss. We know! Hold on to the many precious memories you have of her, Most importantly, hold on to God's unchanging hand as you go through this time of bereavement. We pray He will bless & comfort each of you accordingly.
